A comic book illustration featuring a large, bright yellow explosion or energy burst that fills the lower half of the frame. Above the main explosion, a smaller green starburst shape is visible, with white lines suggesting motion or energy radiating from it. The background is a solid black, making the yellow and green elements stand out. At the top, a white speech bubble with a black outline contains the text "WAIT!!". At the bottom, the word "BOOM" is written in large, bold, white capital letters with thick black outlines, giving it a three-dimensional, popping appearance.
